4y-Records : Collecting Comic Strips Since 1985. Jonathan Ian Mathers

Long before there was Foamy the Squirrel, there was 4y-Records. An underground comic strip about a sarcastic record store clerk and his anger towards corporate music. Written and published in various music magazines from 2000 to 2003, these comic strips have become invaluable time-capsules of commentary covering music, movies, politics and more! Music snobs and casual listeners wont be disappointed. There's something for everyone. Even contains some really early appearance of both Germaine and Foamy from the cult Neurotically Yours series. Back in the day, no band or musician was safe from the wrath of 4y-Records. Every 4y-Records comic strip has been collected for your enlightenment. There's like... over 400 strips here, dude. That's massive.
