Skyrah Jane Campbell has always been driven to succeed and make a name for herself away from her family. Moving to Chicago to attend college and start a career doesn't leave much room for romance. Living with Anabelle, her feisty best friend, has helped Skyrah begin to come out of her shell. However, nothing could prepare Skyrah for the day she first laid eyes on Wyatt Weston.

Wyatt, a successful business man, is the owner of the Weston Building where coincidentally Skyrah works. When his father died, Wyatt inherited his company. A forever playboy and commitment-phobe, Wyatt never wanted to settle down until a brief encounter with Skyrah turns his world upside down.

Will Skyrah's encounter with Wyatt's sexy younger brother, Wriston, come between the two? How will The Weston family handle learning their family isn't as reputable and honest as they once thought?

While trying to build a lasting relationship, can Skyrah and Wyatt handle everything life throws at them?
