Handbook of the History of Philosophy (Pre-Scholastic and Scholastic Philosophy 1) Albert Stockl

This is the complete First Volume of the History of Philosophy from the Second Edition (1903) which contains both Pre-Scholastic and Scholastic Philosophy.

Albert Stockl (1823-1895) was a German historian born into a Catholic family and ordained a priest. Stockl became an historian of philosophy because he believed there were so few Catholics in the field. Not only did he feel that the field lacked a Catholic perspective, but that many of the older works on philosophy placed medieval philosophy in an unfavorable light.
