History of Biblical Interpretation, Vol. 3: Renaissance, Reformation, Humanism (Society of Biblical Literature) (Resources for Biblical Study) Henning Graf Reventlow

Volume 3 of History of Biblical Interpretation deals with an era Renaissance, Reformation, and humanism characterized by major changes, such as the rediscovery of the writings of antiquity and the newly invented art of printing. These developments created the context for one of the most important periods in the history of biblical interpretation, one that combined both philological insights made possible by the now-accessible ancient texts with new theological impulses and movements. As representative of this period, this volume examines the lives and teaching of Johann Reuchlin, Erasmus, Martin Luther, Philipp Melancthon, John Calvin, Thomas Müntzer, Hugo Grotius, and a host of other influential exegetes.
