Pocketful of Rubies: A Good Offices Crime Novel (Volume 1) Clara de Melo Castelar

Moonshire exists only in my mind though it owes its beauty and warmth to the historic town where I live, in West Virginia. Pocketful of Rubies introduces the Good Offices team. This is an unabashedly cozy story in which plot intricacies take second place to the warmth of human relationships in a small community near Washington DC. est Virginia. The people who inhabit Moonshire are fictional. Luna Montejro and I share a national origin, religious background, some work experience, and a cat. That is all. To the best of my knowledge, there are no Paraguayan transvestites in the Israeli Defence Forces. Xuxo and Pako Stern do owe their penchant for disguises to Ehud Barak, who wore women's clothing during an IDF mission to avenge the death Israeli athletes murdered by terrorists during the Munich Massacre, in 1972.
