From Book 1: Our earth is fighting a daily battle, shielding us and our life-giving technology from the electromagnetic ravages of the sun.

Every 100 years or so, we are hit by an epic solar storm that could devastate our world's electrical-based society were it to strike today.

It happened last in 1859, when we had little technology... over 150 years ago. We are past due!

"Any day now we will be hit with a solar storm that will return us back to the Stone Age!"

- Noted astrophysicist, Dr. Carrington Reid [CMEResearchInstitute.org]

A vacationing family is separated;
A friend readies them for a catastrophe;
A young love blossoms;
A prophet's fame rises;
A prepper waits for the violence to come.

All are unprepared for the apocalypse about to strike the Earth, one so great and unprecedented, it will bring humanity into a new Stone Age.

Get prepared for what readers have called, "very real & very scary," a "chilling story," and your "worst nightmare."

Movie Rating: PG-13 for some language and violent situations
