The Rental Agreement Ana Lee

When Brittany lost her job she knew that things were going to be rough, but she had no idea how rough until the landlord came to the door for the rent...

With no job and no money, she felt like she was about to lose it all. Her apartment and the life she had carved out for herself over the past five years were on the line. When the landlord's son Jimmy came to the door for the rent, Brittany was able to stall him off for a few hours so she could try to raise the money. Just when she thought there was no way out, the landlord had an idea that might keep her in the apartment.
