All I Want is You Martina Reilly

Poppy Furlong has it all, cute kid, big house and a husband who loves her. And then her husband's business partner disappears with the company profits and Poppy has to downsize her life. Big time. She leaves her beautiful mansion in Dublin for a semi in the suburbs. She has to find a job when she has no skills. No longer able to buy expensive clothes or have her hair done each week, she thinks her life has reached rock-bottom. But things get even worse when her father and her grumpy mother-in-law get in on the action. What will it take to make Poppy realise that it's not what you have in your life that matters, but who you have?

A funny, life-affirming book that will charm your socks off.....
