Hope Is Certain: The Story of a Teenager with Crohn's Krystal Welk

"Your daughter is very ill. She should be in the hospital, don't you think?" "Thank God. I think it's about time," my mom replied. The voices faded into oblivion as I stared intensely at the animal wallpaper. Maybe if I stared hard enough all the insanity would just disappear. I wished that were true. I wished I could escape ... This book was written so youth with Crohn's can find comfort in knowing they are not alone in their struggles and there is hope. It was also written for parent's of children with Crohn's, so they might be able to better understand what it is like to live daily with this disease.
