Models of Capitalism: Debating Strengths and Weaknesses (Elgar Mini Series)

Models of Capitalism: Debating Strengths and Weaknesses (Elgar Mini Series)

An authoritative collection providing the reader with easy access to the full range of arguments now being developed to explain why some forms of economic organization prospered best in the immediate past, and why some models now seem more effective than others in responding to the new global conditions of intensified international competition and rapid capital mobility. These three volumes should prove a valuable reference source for students and researchers specializing in modern capitalism.
