What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you see or think about a lemon? Statistically it has been proven that people think about the sour taste of the fruit right away. You've probably been conditioned in the past to react to such situations in life. What if you were conditioned to think about the taste of the most refreshing lemonade ever when you saw a lemon? That would definitely take you to a much happier state of mind, would it not? Easier said than done, most certainly, but it is possible to view your own life from a much different perspective - the way it always was originally meant to be. You were born free, but are you also living free today? This is not about political freedom, but freedom to live a life that you crave for in the core of your heart. Wealth is not just the money. Physical, spiritual, relational and relational well being collectively with financial opulence embodies wealth. Your life can be abundant only if you intend it to be.
