"There is nothing new and nothing bad in my story. I am the lost one of the Lost Generation."

" I wanted a creation, a book which would be a stretched poem, the sharp account of reality, a story far from me but devoted to my voice, a terpsichorean thing reigning with some seriousness over the words around, a reflect of the fluminous quality of ideas, running over the paper like rivers to the sea, on every direction without chaos."

Fitzgerald, Hemingway, Faulkner or Steinbeck, we all know their names but what about the ones who never got a bit of light ?

A short story about the pains and pleasure of literature, a forged autobiography : a tribute to all writers...
