One woman with a shattered soul.

Natalie Matthews depends on no one, not even after a car accident claims the lives of her husband and unborn baby. She doesn't want pity, because she knows she has only herself to blame. But the moment she meets her sexy new neighbor, Cade, she recognizes in him a soul as broken as her own, and is drawn to the physical comfort he offers, without pity. Again and again.

It's just sex. Isn't it?

Cade makes her feel whole again, but there are parts of herself she can't share. Like her guilt over destroying her perfect life, and her fear that she'll destroy him, too. Can she let herself depend on him, or will she push him away when she needs him the most?

One man trying to forget the past.

Cade Ellis lived a charmed life as a wealthy young doctor, until a series of calamities left him a widower and put his career on hold. Now all he wants to do is forget. If that includes sleeping with every eligible woman in his new, small town - well, that's a sacrifice he's willing to make, if only to stop up the gaping hole in his chest where his heart used to be.

Then he meets Natalie.

One night together isn't enough. She's the only one he wants, and for the first time, he starts to picture building a new future. But when Cade is forced to dig deeper into his wife's death, both his and Natalie's futures are in danger. Maybe even their lives.

Can Cade and Natalie leave the past behind them and forge a future of their own? Or will the ghosts of their pasts destroy them before they get their happy ending?
