"As patroness of the Americas, there is no doubt that Our Lady of Guadalupe is one of the most recognized figures in the spiritual consciousness of Hispanics and non-Hispanics alike. Our Lady's apparitions to Juan Diego continue to be the strongest root of catholicism in Latinamerica as the devotion continues to be passed down to our younger generations. This booklet explores the rich history in an easy, bilingual format for children and gives the catechist or parent tips and guides along the way to help them present this rich story to their children."
