Keana is now starting High School. It's been a year since she last cut. She has become stronger. Her and Angel go into a new school, but has Tammy already down her throat about the cutting. It gets a few of her friends off, and it makes Keana relapse. Her mom then finds out, and goes into the school, but only about the bullying. The next day, Keana goes back but gets a lot of grief again. This time, she runs home, and tries to kill herself after a message from Tammy. She changes her mind, but after more crap, she tries again, this time, she gets rushed into hospital, and she finally wakes up. Angel suggests that she joins a help website so she can get help for the bullying, and self harm. She comes across Aiden, a friendly guy who is willing to help her. She notices that he's only an hour away. One day when Keana is at school, Aiden comes and visits her... will Aiden help Keana get the help she deserves? Or will Keana not get the help she so desperately needs?
