Twenty Questions: Theology For The Twenty First Century: Volume One (Volume 1) Rev David Justin Lynch

What does it mean to be a Christian? This question should be asked daily by all who believe in Jesus Christ. The answer comes to each of us as inspiration and insight – to deepen our experience of Jesus, the Living Christ. Rev. Lynch took the twenty questions and answered each with an abundance of material. Now he has published his work for the benefit of others – those planning for ordination, and those who simply want some answers about the ancient faith, as it is understood by many progressive Catholics in the 21st century. His work invites us to sift through the wheat and chaff of Church history, and to plant seeds of faith and wisdom in our own hearts. This book will deepen your relationship with God our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier and with your community of fellow Christians on a uniquely personal level.
