Weaving together elegance, delicacy, and femininity, Carolina Herrera has defined a graceful aesthetic that is all her own. Born into an aristocratic family, Herrera's fashion sensibilities were awakened when she attended her first fashion show, at age thirteen. Since her emergence as a renowned beauty surrounded by royals and artists, Carolina Herrera has established herself as the woman who dresses women who know how to dress. Told through the lens of celebrated photographers and the words of friends, colleagues, and admirers, this is the story of one of today's most timeless designers and most remarkable women.
