The bestselling Forever Family Series concludes with this emotionally gripping story. Follow the lives of two incredible people as they battle their way through many years of heartache, loss and love. This story will take you on an epic journey that spans almost 20 years. Juliet Oliver was adopted at birth and has always struggled with this fact. She's been emotionally detached from everyone in her entire life, except for one person. He's been the one source of support, love and encouragement. Seth Tyson has had his share of painful relationships. He's constantly battling with his own demons, led by issues at home. Book blurb: I lost her. I thought she was the love of my life. She was everything I needed. Everything I wanted. She made me forget about my past. My family. She made me feel real. How do I move on from her? Will I find someone like her? It's time to pick up the pieces. But can I? I'm Seth Tyson and this is my story. ~~~ I deserve a happily ever after, don't I?
