Set in a modern-day mental hospital that resembles something from the mid-1900s, Room 22 is a fantastical mystery surrounding a teenager named Dylan, who is the longest surviving resident in the hospital. As time goes on, he learns of the mysteries of Creedmoore, and with the help of the new twins and a couple of allies, he finds out some of the deepest secrets the building and the residents share. A story full of mystery, action, the supernatural, and even an unconventional romance, this book will have you on the edge of your seat to the very last page.
