Devil's Pathway (DAWN: Warriors of Valor Book 1) Vicki V. Lucas

I force myself to live by one rule: Don't look at the demons. The two times I broke this rule still haunt me. Tonight I made another mistake. As a huge demon leered at us, I couldn't fight the urge. I looked. And he saw me. Maybe it's not a big deal. Nothing happened as my aunt sped beyond it in the car. Besides, I only have one year of high school left. I'll be fine. But I know exactly what could occur. I've seen it too many times. Two men lurked with the demon I saw tonight. Evil clung to them, as if they had given their souls in exchange for something else. I shudder when I consider what they could be. But do vampires really exist? With everything I've seen, I wouldn't be too surprised. Where are the good guys? If there's darkness, shouldn't there be light? How come the angels don't battle the demons if that is the case? Or do they? Maybe there's a war around me that I don't see. I just want to be left alone, and after tonight, I don't think that's going to be a choice.

This young adult fantasy novel weaves angels, demons, and vampires into a thrilling adventure in which angels and humans wage war on demons and vampires. The action doesn't stop as Nic, the main character, is forced into choosing which side of the fight he is on while both sides are desperately urging him to join their army. Devil's Pathway is a Christian fantasy novel for teens who are ready to get serious about their faith. If you like Frank Peretti's "This Present Darkness" or novels by Ted Dekker, you'll like Devil's Pathway.
