How Then Shall We Live? Stephanie Rodda

Hank and Tessie have an extra large family and an ordinary life until everything changes and they are forced to face challenges that require ingenuity and flexibility to keep their family safe and their faith strong. Uncertain economic times that include gasoline rationing and reduced income have the world as they know it upside down. What they once took for granted now demands hard work and sacrifice. This is the first of three books based on Tessie's journals where she recorded her prayers and concerns. With each journal new crisis' are faced.
