When you change your circumstances, the circumstances of the world change. But first, as Gandhi said, "You must be the change you wish to see in the world." The world is in the midst of significant transformation and evolution. There is evidence of massive breakthroughs occurring: the appearance of stunningly gifted children in unprecedented numbers, the emergence of innovative and integrated healing modalities, more and more people seeking their true purpose, and the dawning of new communities and social structures. In America with the financial crisis, entrepreneurs are going to save the economy. We have a clear vision of what is possible for all humans. Entrepreneurship is key to growth and job creation in America. Small companies earn 50 percent of the GDP and provide 50 percent of all jobs. This book presents information from business leaders who have ignited their businesses and who are challenging you to do the same.
