A stunning book about the Althorp Estate, the last resting place of Diana Princess of Wales. Earl Spencer talks about his current projects updating and maintaining the Estate, his incredible ancestors, his favorite spots in the house and grounds, and about the privilege and challenge that come with being a custodian of such a splendid home. Illustrated with glorious photos which bring the book to vibrant life and include 'behind the scenes' shots of areas not open to the public. Published in 2012, already out of print.
