This is more than just a Coloring book. Much more. At the heart of everything we do as humans, there is poop.

Every wonderful meal you've ever shared eventually ended up as Poop. That's right, a turd. A back-end biscuit. The end of all things is poop. Perhaps it isn't the sexiest thing on the planet (although some would disagree) but it's a part of our lives.

Just count up how many hours we do things related to poop. If you're a parent, double that. If you're a parent for a newborn . . . quadruple that!

What we decided to do with this book was to make it fun to color, but also informative. You and your family are about to learn more about poop than you ever imagined.

We are going to cover Poop, Toilets, Toilet Paper, and some hidden nuggets buried inside the subject of poop.

You're going to have fun with this book and you're going to learn all sorts of interesting factoids in the process. Even Einstein pooped. In fact, he was pooping when he came up with the Theory of Relativity!

Poop = MC2

Along the way, Ploppie McCrapperson will assist you in your voyage of poo. So get your brown markers ready, it's time to doo the right thing.
