FuRock is the new band that's got the whole world talking. Their lead singer transforms into a bear for the final number, in front of a crowd of thousands. Everyone thinks it's an illusion, but Dana knows better... She's gone to see FuRock in concert more times than she'd ever admit. She follows them from gig to gig, hoping to catch her rock-god, but always missing them. She despairs of ever meeting the love of her life. But when she finally catches the lead singer's eye, her life is turned upside down. He becomes the bear and comes down from the stage. The fans run screaming--all of them, except Dana. She stands and waits for him to claim her.

In his ursine eyes she sees the man inside. Her love, her mate. He gathers her up and carries her to his bedroom where everything is revealed...
