Invisible (Spanish Edition) Cecily Anne Paterson

Jazmine Crawford no toma decisiones. No elige. No hace amigos. Jazmine Crawford solo quiere una cosa: ser invisible. Para Jazmine es mucho más fácil quitarse el audífono y evadirse fingiendo que no hay nada peor que admitir que tiene el corazón roto por la muerte de su padre. Ha estado evadiéndose e ignorando a su preocupada madre durante cuatro años.

Cuando la chica mala, Shalini, y sus amigas se unen a Jazmine, ella se encuentra involucrada en una situación superior a sus fuerzas. Sentada avergonzada en el despacho del director, a Jazmine le ofrecen una oportunidad: ayudar a la profesora de teatro, la señorita Fraser, con la inminente representación teatral de El jardín secreto, o enfrentarse a cuatro semanas de expulsión.

Es la señorita Fraser quien anima su decisión. «Creo en ti, Jazmine», dice. «Sé que puedes hacer esto». Y Jazmine, aterrorizada, incrédula y entusiasmada, todo a la vez, se une a la obra de teatro.

Al principio todo va bien. La estrella de la obra y amante del chocolate, Liam, es amable y Jazmine se da cuenta de que hacer amigos, hablar con su madre y sentir emociones no es tan terrible como ella pensaba. En un feliz giro del destino, la diva de la interpretación, Angela, abandona la obra una semana antes de su estreno. La señorita Fraser le pide a Jazmine que la reemplace en su papel como Mary, la protagonista.

Pero entonces Shalini regresa de su expulsión. Ha vuelto para vengarse y tiene la munición necesaria para forzar a Jazmine a abandonar la obra y hacer que regrese a sus viejas costumbres.

¿Tendrá Jazmine suficiente seguridad para plantarle cara a Shalini? ¿Liam seguirá queriéndola si descubre la realidad? ¿Tendrá la fuerza necesaria para enfrentarse a la verdad sobre el suicidio de su padre?
