The Door of Perception Andrew J. Weston

John is a long way from family, isolated from friends and is getting embroiled in dangerous situations in a new and overbearing city. He decides his only option is to escape the walls of ordinary reality and seeks out practises and people that can help him do this. Beyond all expectations he succeeds and what he finds is an inexplicable, frightening and confounding world that leads him to want nothing more than to return home, if only he could.
