For Mia, spring break was a perfect opportunity to take a break from the hustle and bustle of college life. She decides to come home for the week long vacation hoping to enjoy peace and quiet and her mom's cooking and hoping that the little family reunion would be better than driving off somewhere with the thrill-seeking group of people she know at the university. Little did she expect that she was about to step into a different kind of thrill...

He held her by the waist. His muscles were tensed. His rough palms were burning and she wanted that heat to travel to the more private parts of her body. He lowered his mouth to her ear. "I want you to be mine," he whispered once again. "Will you let me have you as my mate?"

Torn between very hard decisions, would Mia give in or would she run away?
